Communion

All are invited to join us as we use this time to remember Christ's sacrifice. After we pray, trays will be passed down the aisle. Please take a piece of bread which represents Christ's body, then pass the tray on to your neighbor. After another prayer, trays will again be passed with cups of grape juice which represents Christ's blood.

Carlie Jo Johnson, daughter of Doug & TaLisha Johnson

This is not the news any parent ever wants to share but we want to humbly ask for prayers... “Carlie Jo is in the fight of her life”- exact words used by the hematological oncologist. After random bruises showed up all over her body (especially her legs) last weekend she had blood work on Tuesday. Results came in this morning and we were sent to UT Southwestern in Dallas to confirm her diagnosis.

Carlie Jo told the doctor not to sugar coat it so I won’t either...Our sweet Carlie Jo has a very aggressive form of Acute Leukemia. We were immediately surrounded by 3 doctors who sat with us and explained everything. The team here at UTSW is truly incredible! In just the 8 hours she has been here she has probably seen/been in contact with 20 doctors working collaboratively to help her. They have already given her a dose of chemotherapy and so many other things that I can’t pronounce. She will be here at least a month, and while she is missing some Senior year milestones, she has been a trooper and we will celebrate her as soon as we can.

On the way here I was falling apart and she said, “God only sends his warriors into battle mom. I got this.” — what wisdom.

She is feisty, smart, stubborn and will beat this. While we are scared to death and stressed, Doug and I cling to the promise that God is bigger than this. Please, please pray for our warrior Carlie Jo... because God only sends his warriors into battle.

Donations for the Johnson family can be dropped off at the church office. Cards, gift cards and monetary donations will be given to the family ASAP.

Please make checks out directly to the Johnson’s.
